If you elect me, on the first Thursday in August next, I will discharge the duties of the office promptly, justly and impartially, and I hope, with that integrity which has characterized me as a soldier.

Randolph and Alamance.—The true Conservatives of Alamance and Randolph counties are Requested to meet in convention on the first Saturday in June, at Liberty, Randolph county, instead of the third Saturday in May, to put in nomination a candidate for the Senate, who will support for Governor Mr. Holden, endorsing the great principles of Gov. Brown and Vice President Stephens of Georgia. May 16-td

To the People of North-Carolina.—In compliance with the wishes of many friends, I announce myself a candidate for the office of Governor of North-Carolina, at the election to be held on the first Thursday in August next.

My principles and views, as a Conservative "after the straitest sect," are well known to the people of the State. Those principles and views are what they have been.—They will not be changed.

I am not disposed, at a time like this, to invite the people from their employments, and add to the excitement which prevails in the public mind, by haranguing them for their votes. We need all our energies to meet the common enemy, and to provide means of subsistence for our troops in the field and the people at home. Let the people go calmly and firmly to the polls and vote for the men of their choice. I will cheerfully abide their decision, whatever it may be.

If elected I will do every thing in my power to promote the interests, the honor and the glory of North-Carolina, and to secure an honorable peace.

Hillsboro' Recorder, Salem Press, Greensborough Patriot, and Henderson Times will please copy till day of election, and forward accounts.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. V. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1864. NO. 180.

From the Standard.

THE SIXTY-SEVENTH COMMENCEMENT AT CHAPEL HILL—JUNE 24, 1864.

The graduates this year at our University were Albert M. Bonner, of Lexington, S. C., Walter McK. Clark, of Halifax co., James C. Gilmer, of Surry co., Wm. A. Guthrie, of Chapel Hill, James T. Tate, of Gaston, Augustus Van Wyck, of Pendleton, S. C., and J. Buxton Williams, of Warren co. Mr. Williams was the only member of the class who joined it four years ago. While Freshmen it counted sixty-eight, while Sophomore thirty-five, and while Junior nine members. Two of them died while at Chapel Hill, (one only four weeks ago). Since the "Senior Speaking" two have buried their mothers, one of these (Mr. Guthrie) on the morning of his graduation day. Two were absent from commencement attending to their duties as Staff officers, one in Georgia and the other in Virginia, and all the seven graduated as enrolled soldiers of the Confederate army. Such are the vicissitudes that shape out the lives of our young men in these sad and eventful times. Of those who composed the Faculty when this class joined College, one-fifth have fallen in the service of their country, two others bear honorable scars from well fought battle fields, and the sixth has been active, as private and as officer, ever since the Bethel regiment was first organized. These statistics concerning pupils and teachers show that the educated and educating men of our country have not been backward to shed their blood in defence of the homes of their neighbors, even the humblest.

Among the seven graduates of 1864 Mr. Gilmer received the first, Messrs. Guthrie and Tate the second, and Messrs. Bonner and Van Wyck the third distinctions in scholarship. Mr. Clark spent the Senior year only at the University. But while there he was regarded as one of the best scholars in the class. Mr. Bonner was never, and Mr. Gilmer but once, absent from their duties as students while at the University.

The following speeches were delivered by Seniors on commencement day:

Latin Salutatory.—W. A. Guthrie.

Omnipresence of God.—A. M. Bonner.

Career of Hannibal.—J. B. Williams.

Valedictory.—J. C. Gilmer.

Mr. Tate was providentially prevented from speaking, and Messrs. Clark and Van Wyck were absent in the army.

Among the fourteen members of the Junior class, Mr. P. H. Adams, of Greensborough, obtained the first distinction in scholarship. The second distinction was awarded to Messrs. Louden and W. Prout, and the third to Messrs. Huff and Ross. Mr. E. G. Prout was reckoned as a scholar of the first rank in French, Latin and Logic, and of the second in the Bible, Greek and Mathematics. Mr. Henderson obtained the first rank in the languages, the second in Logic and the third in the Bible. Mr. R. Hodge was reckoned as perfectly punctual during the Junior year, and Mr. Henderson was absent from no duty during its second term. Messrs. Huff, London and Ross were also very conscientious and successful in attending to their duties as students.

There are only two regular members left in the Sophomore Class at the end of the session. There were seven others at the beginning of the year, who are now encountering the toils of the camp or the dangers of the battle-field. Of these two Mr. W. W. Adams, of Petersburg, Va., was declared the better scholar and the more punctual student. At the beginning of the session, the Freshman class counted twenty-eight members, at the close it had only thirteen. Of these Mr. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, was reckoned the best scholar. Mr. R. Means obtained the second distinction, and Messrs. Alston, Burton and Winston the third. Mr. Tinny was declared to be of the second order in the Bible and in Mathematics. Messrs. Guthrie and Tinny have not been absent from a duty since they joined College, and Mr. Means has not been absent during the session just closed.

The only competitors in declamation on this occasion were from the Freshman Class, and they appeared in the following order:

The triumph of Poesy.—H. H. Mallett, of Chapel Hill.

Spartacus to the Gladiators.—P. H. Winston, of Windsor.

Our Duties to the Republic.—A. G. Carr, of Chapel Hill.

The Lone Star of Texas—A. G. Burton, of Halifax county.

Intemperance.—W. C. McAdoo, of Greensboro'.

Address in behalf of the Greeks.—R. W. Means, of Cabarrus county.

Irish Aliens and English Victories.—F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh.

Among these Mr. Busbee was judged to be the most successful, and Mr. Winston followed close behind; but then the most of these speeches are so old, and they have been selected so often, that the declaiming them must be now a very easy task. "Spartacus," and "The Irish aliens," and "The Lamp of experience," &c, ought to be allowed to rest now till our great-grand children indulge their fancies for the antique.

The usual address before the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies was omitted. Nor was there any address before the Historical Society; nor before the Alumni Association. How to escape present troubles, and how to evade those in future, both temporal and spiritual, are the main questions before the public now. Hence politicians and preachers are the only speakers who can find hearers. Dr. Deems ceased awhile from his labor of love to exhort the Seniors and their associates to cultivate first and last, universally and continuously, love to God. His text is to be found in Matthew 22: 37, 38. Dr. Deems is too well known in North Carolina to require a description of his style for the readers of the Standard. That man must be stolid in head and rocky in heart who can sit uninterested or unmoved before him as he reasons on righteousness, temperance, and a judgement to come. When our preachers thus leave politics to the politicians and set an example to politicians to leave preaching to our preachers, our land will be kept from falling into danger, or having fallen therein, it will be rightly chastened thereby and find a ready and sure escape therefrom.

The exercises of Commencement were enlivened by music from the band of our 43d regiment under the skilful leadership of Mr. Wyeas; and the good order of the occasion was successfully maintained by the vigilance and activity of the Marshal, Mr. P. H. Adams and his assistants, Messrs Henderson, London, and Roan. Besides President Swain, Govs. Vance and Manly, Judges Battle and Manly, and Mr. P. C. Cameron were present as members of the Board of Trustees. The Senatus Academicus conferred the degree of A. M. on the Hon. S. J. Person, Prof. W. B. Lynch and Mr. H. Strong, of S. C., graduates of the University. The Rev. Mr. Hilliard of the Episcopal Church, a graduate of Cambridge College, Mass., was admitted to the same degree in our own University, and A. M. was conferred ex honore on the Rev. N. W. Wilson, Pastor of the Baptist Church in Chapel Hill.

Worthy Sentiment.

We are glad to see the following remarks in the Richmond Sentinel. It does not elevate the dignity of States or individuals, or benefit our cause, to abuse each other. We have never done it unless driven to it in defence of our own State, and we most heartily condemn it. The Sentinel says:

"We are sorry to see that our North Carolina exchanges are regarding the late attack on Gen. Bragg as evincing an unfriendly feeling towards their State on the part of Virginians. We can assure them that any such sentiments of unkindness as those thus imputed, would find no sympathy whatever with our people. We do not believe that any people on earth have a more catholic, fraternal spirit, than that which this day animates the people of Virginia towards all Confederates. And, indeed, we have reason. We see here, Texans and Missourians, Louisianians, and Kentuckians, Alabamians, Carolinians, Georgians and Mississippians, and the sons of Tennessee, Florida and Arkansas, and of down-trodden but brave old Maryland—all fighting like heroes, by the side of our troops, to expel the foe from our State. Together they conquer, and together they bleed and die. No State is more prominently or gloriously represented in this army than the good old State of North Carolina. So far from an unfriendly sentiment towards these gallant soldiers or the State they represent, it is a pleasure and a delight to us, and our people, to chronicle their achievements, and to render them the tribute of our praise and affection. We trust that no erratic or ill-considered utterance of individuals will be suffered to disturb these sentiments of fraternal and affectionate harmony, which Virginians feel for the citizens of their neighbor sister State, and of which they desire a cordial reciprocation.

HOW THEY TALK OF US.—The Savannah Republican, a paper that is owned by one Confederate officer-holder and edited by another, has the following paragraph concerning this State:

Nullification.—The Legislature of North Carolina passed a bill some days ago, making it a penal offense for any one to attempt to execute in that State the late act of Congress suspending the writ of habeas corpus. It is thus that a State of the Confederacy nullifies an act which Congress has a clear constitutional right to pass, and has it by the consent of all the States.—North Carolina may go out of the Union if she chooses, but as long as she remains a member of it, the President should execute every law within her limits, as he has sworn to do, be the case what it may. There is no doubt about where the responsibility would rest in such a contingency.

☞ Business Notice.—The expenses attending the publication of the PROGRESS are enormous and have to be paid promptly, and we must do a cash business or none at all. We must demand cash from all save those business men of the city who have accounts with the office, and parties at a distance are expected to remit promptly when bills are sent. We have no time to collect bills and don't want to make any charges. There never was a better time to pay debts than the present, and all who owe us are requested and expected to pay at once.

☞ Any of our friends receiving important news from the army by private letter or telegrams, will confer a great favor on us by sending or leaving them at this office for our use.

☞ Job Printing.—Having an abundance of material and good workmen we are prepared to execute all orders for Job PRINTING with dispatch.

☞ Twenty cents for Rags.—Twenty cents a pound will be paid for all clean Cotton an Linen rags delivered at the Progress office.

FRENCH BROAD LANDS FOR SALE.

GLEN CANNON FARM, TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS FARM LIES ON THE FRENCH BROAD River, within five miles of Brevard, the county town, and is extensively known as the best tract of land, and the most productive property in the county, and probably in Western North Carolina. In salubrity of climate, beauty of scenery, location and fertility of soil, it is unsurpassed by any property in the State. It consists of 1,370 acres land, 400 of which are first quality French Broad bottom, all of which, with the exception of 40 or 50 acres, are cleared and under a high state of cultivation, thoroughly drained and excellent fences, most of which are new lath fencing on locust posts. 2,875 bushels of corn were gathered from 38 acres of this land with ordinary cultivation and without any fertilizer ever having been applied to it. Ninety acres are laid down in the most approved mode, to the grasses and afford heavy crops of hay and excellent pastures. The balance of the tract, say 970 acres, is the heaviest and best timbered mountain land.

The whole tract is under one boundary and may be subdivided advantageously, there being four very eligible and beautiful building sites, with bottom land attached.

On the premises is a good cottage residence, of five rooms, each with a fire place, kitchen, servant houses, ice house, storeroom, dairy, smokehouse, framed corn crib, capacity, 3,500 bushels ear corn, one double and five single negro houses, two tenant settlements, an excellent saw and grist mill, all built within thirteen years by the proprietor. The saw mill is driven by an overshot wheel of 28 feet in diameter, and is located at one of the most beautiful water falls of about 100 feet in height and equal to 150 horse power, and only fifteen minutes walk from the residence.

This property for this year is under rent to Gen. Smith, of East Tennessee, who will give any information desired during the absence of the proprietor.

The price for these lands is ($160,000) one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. Payment may be made in Confederate stock at the market value at Columbia, S. C., at time of sale.

With the above property can be purchased twelve remarkably prime and orderly negroes, being a picked gang accustomed to the culture of the farm in the most careful and cleanly style. Among them are four men, three women and five children. The men are excellent plowmen, mowers, cradlers, &c., one is a good carpenter. Of the women, one is an excellent cook and spinner. The children are from 3 to 6 years of age. Also the farm tools, consisting in part of plows, harrows, horse rake, field roller, corn planters, sorgho mill, molasses boilers, corn sheller, straw cutters, timber carts, &c., &c. Also the stock of highly improved cattle.

DAILY PROGRESS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1864.

"The right of the people peaceably to assemble for their common good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances by petition, address or remonstrance, and the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed. That no soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law. That the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by the civil power. That no person shall be subject to trial by court martial for any crime or offence punishable with death or imprisonment, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger; and no person shall be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall any person be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, or be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor can private property be taken for public use without just compensation."—Extract from Constitution Confederate States.

As he moves into the bounds of the mountains we hope Governor Vance will not fail to acquaint the people of the fact that much of their trouble is unfortunate to him. He has maintained to imprisonments, outlaws, conscriptions and robberies, which the Governors of other States have protested against their violence. Gov. Brown preserved the exemption of ten of his poor mountain counties from the operations of the conscript law, but we have yet to hear of such an application being made by Gov. Vance in behalf of his suffering, bleeding fellow-citizens of the country beyond the Blue Ridge. And we hope he will not forget, also, to repeat his chaste and elegant injunctions to the children, made in his speeches to them in Northern Virginia, "to fight until hell freezed over and then rise and fight on the ice," and to "fill hell with Yankees until their coats hung out at the windows." We suppose that copyright laws "secured according to act of Congress," &c., but we hope his Excellency will look to the rights of his subjects and give them plain facts. We would remind him, too, that he promised the boys such a bottle of whisky and white (blockade) sugar to sweeten it with, and that they are now clamorous for him to redeem that promise.

If hell is to freeze over it will be a matter of congratulation to many persons in this sublunary sphere, and below, we hope the brethren of secession proclivities will "operate" the pious expression of his bloodthirsty from their various pulpits.

Staunton.

Staunton, which place has just fallen into the hands of the enemy by the reverse in our arms in the Valley, is 130 miles from Richmond. It is the capital town of Augusta county, Virginia, is situated on a branch of the Shenandoah river, near its source, and contains some 3,000 or 4,000 inhabitants. Staunton is the seat of the Western Lunatic Asylum, and of the Virginia Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and Blind.—It contains several churches, academies, seminaries &c. The surrounding country is highly productive and beautifully diversified, forming part of the great Valley of Virginia. The citizens of Staunton are intelligent, refined and cultivated. We trust that the enemy will not be allowed to retain possession of this flourishing place, but that they may be driven out and the people left free again.

We are not yet in possession of the particulars of the fight in the Valley, or the number of the forces engaged, though it is stated that we had to fall back before superior numbers.

Newbern.

We have heard various rumors relative to the evacuation of Newbern during the past few days but do not give them much credence. One report is that the Yankees have sent all the negroes to Boston, and that they are removing their stores preparatory to evacuation. How much truth there is in these reports will be developed hereafter.

Let citizens and soldiers remember that if they vote for Vance they vote for an immediate restriction of the war, for he is for "fighting it out now." It may be said that Mr. Holden can do nothing for peace if elected, but all will agree that it is better for the cause of peace to have peace men in office. Vote for Vance and you vote for one, but vote for Holden and you vote for three!

The Federal Congress has appropriated money to construct a railroad from the Ohio river to East Tennessee, for military purposes. This don't look much like the Yankees expected to complete the work of subjugation during the present year.

SKULKERS IN MISSISSIPPI.—The following passage from a letter from Jackson to the Appeal will show how some of the chivalry of Mississippi are serving their country:

"Most of the male population that yet remain, including the Deputy Sheriffs, spend their time between the telegraph office and the shady grounds of the capitol, and discuss the war situation in all its bearings. There being no printing office here, the dispatches are read to the crowd as fast as they arrive. Mr. Joshua Grant being the principal reading clerk, assisted occasionally by Judge William Yerger. These dispatches are paid for by the "club."

Speaking of Deputy sheriffs reminds me that Hinds county has only fifty four of these officials; Copiah county has an equal number. In the latter county, however, they are appointed from men between the ages of forty-five and fifty; and Sheriff Haley has these organized into a company, which has already done good service in arresting and sending absentees to their commands. I rather suspect that in Hinds there are not a few who have been long dodging military duty; who now, by virtue of their [illegible] deputy sheriffs, bid defiance to the provost officers.

PRICES AT ALBANY, GA.—The Patriot says that in Albany provisions are beginning to fall. It saw butter sold for $3 per pound on Saturday, and eggs at $1.25 per dozen; bacon brings $3 and sugar $5 per pound. The latter article can be purchased in Macon at $3 retail. Flour is selling outside of Albany at $50 per 100 pounds.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

VIRGINIA.

[From the Dispatch of Tuesday.]

Yesterday was the most quiet period that has occurred since the commencement of active operations in the vicinity of Richmond. No reverberations of cannon broke the stillness of the air, nor were there any exciting "rumors from the front" to disturb the equanimity of the inhabitants. Persons from the lines report that Grant is moving his forces around our right, but what his purpose in remains to be developed.—In the absence of official information, we forbear to speculate upon probabilities. We have a commander who anticipates every movement of the enemy, and in their confidence in his skill and capacity the people rest securely.

Yesterday morning a detachment of Fields' division was sent forward to skirmish with the enemy near Cold Harbor. They picked up some twenty-five prisoners on the way and sent them to the rear. Finding the enemy's first and second lines of fortifications deserted, they proceeded on to the third, wherein were two Yankees, who fired upon the small squad approaching, wounding one of them through the shoulder.—This reconnoissance established the fact that the enemy had changed their position, and beyond this and some slight skirmishing nothing took place yesterday worthy of note.

A number of wounded Yankees were brought in last evening, some of whom had lain in front of the works where they fell since Friday.—Most of their wounds were of a severe character. We saw one whose right leg was off and his left shot through.

Everything remains quiet at Bottom's Bridge and on the South-side.

FROM THE VALLEY—STAUNTON OCCUPIED BY THE ENEMY.

The information published yesterday morning of the advance of the enemy from the Shenandoah upon Staunton gave rise to some apprehensions for the safety of that place, and early in the day rumors of a miscellaneous and exaggerated character were in circulation. The news which we give below is based upon official dispatches, and may be relied upon as correct.

The enemy advanced on Sunday from Port Republic, by way of Mount Crawford, as far as New Hope Church, seven or eight miles from Staunton, on the Valley road, where they were met by a force under Gen. Wm. E. Jones. An engagement ensued, at an early period of which Gen. Jones was killed. His command, overwhelmed by superior numbers, and their leader shot down, were compelled to fall back. The enemy finding this obstruction removed from their path advanced, and at a subsequent period took possession of the town of Staunton.—After the death of Gen. Jones the command of our forces devolved on Gen. Vaughan. All, or nearly all, the government stores had been previously removed from Staunton to a place of security.

We are assured that the report that the enemy had occupied Waynesboro is without foundation; nor is there any confirmation of the extravagant rumor that a raiding party visited Lexington and burned the Washington College and the Virginia Military Institute.

In the death of Gen. Jones the cavalry service has lost one of its brightest ornaments.—He was a native, we believe, of Abingdon, and commenced his military career in the present war, soon after its commencement, under Gen. J. E. B. Stuart. Being ordered to Southwestern Virginia, he proceeded to reorganize the cavalry in that department, and soon rendered it an active and efficient arm of the service. Brave and gallant almost to a fault, he inspired his men with confidence, and had he not, by his dashing courage, sought the post of danger, which to him proved fatal, it is quite probable that the result of the fight at New Hope Church would have been different.

A BEAR UPON THE BENNET'S BEAR.

It is cheering to know that Hunter's advance upon Staunton was not altogether without annoyance. We learn that on Sunday week Maj. Harry Gilmer attacked the rear portion of the Yankee army in Newtown, seven miles from Winchester, and completely routed the whole force, which consisted of about 160 cavalry.—Thirty-five of this number, including commissioned and non commissioned officers, were captured.

Eighteen wagons, heavily loaded with coffee, sugar, army supplies, &c., were also captured and burnt; 68 horses, neatly harnessed, were safely brought away. From what we can learn at least $2,000,000 worth of property was destroyed by Gilmer's daring little band. Our loss was trifling, only two slightly wounded; that of the enemy was severe, considering the numbers.

GEORGIA.

[From the Atlanta Confederacy, June 5.]

THE ARMY OF TENNESSEE.

Passengers by last evening's train from Marietta, report Altoona Hills in possession of the enemy, which they are said to be fortifying. Further report has reached us that our pickets have retired to Big Shanty, both of which lack confirmation.

The enemy has abandoned Hardee's front, on the left. There was some artillery firing on the enemy's side yesterday, and our pickets were engaged in an occasional skirmish. Beyond this all was quiet, and we have no other intelligence of interest, from the field, latter than the following letter, which reached us by courier last evening:

IN FIELD, RIGHT WING, ARMY TENN.,
June 3d, 1864—12 M.

We have drifted, since yesterday morning, from the extreme left to the extreme right of our lines. I have nothing of material interest to report. There is a feeble, irresolute skirmish firing just to the left of our immediate front, but the warmth and enthusiasm of the last several days is greatly abated. It is the general belief of the officers that the enemy will make a dash on the Altoona mountains, and since fortify to secure transportation for army supplies. It is my opinion that Sherman will feel our position for a few hours, perhaps a day or two longer, and will make good his retreat towards Rome and Resaca. Sherman is pre-eminently a raider, and this is but an enlarged edition of his Mississippi project, but with a more disastrous denouement to his haughty columns. He will return and [illegible] himself with his brilliant victories over [illegible], tell his people of his conquests [illegible] heart of [illegible], [illegible] his circle escape, without a shadow regret for the deluded blue-coat victims of [illegible] fall-ure.

There is now a half dreamy lull along the entire line. Should anything "turn up" before sending this I will add it.

June 4—10 A. M.—The enemy were reported to be advancing on our right last night, and the cavalry were withdrawn and the dock cleared for action, but the night were away without any excitement. There was heavy skirmishing for an hour or two in Claiborne's front, but that quietly died out. The demonstration was most likely a ruse of the enemy to cover other movements. All quiet to-day. The roads are in a bad condition and getting worse.

Respectfully, MARY JULIA.

P. S.—Since the above came to the hands of the printer, we have conversed with a citizen from the vicinity of Blue Mountain, sixty-one miles southwest of Rome, who left that point last Wednesday. He remarks that he met General Chalmer's column, and saw General Chalmers, about twenty miles below, and moving up to Blue Mountain.

He also states that the 17th army corps (Federal) under Blair, from Vicksburg, with a large wagon train and drove of cattle, was advancing towards Rome. Blair's force was at first reported twenty thousand, but our informant believes there cannot be more than from 5 to 10 thousand. A Confederate force was said to be in their rear, following. He was told by some of Chalmers' men that Forrest was thought to be on the north side of the Tennessee. He says that he could distinctly hear firing in the direction of Sand Mountain, on Wednesday morning.

EXEMPTION OF STATE OFFICERS.

That those who have perished may yield a specific of the law exempting State officers from conscription we reproduce the Act of the Legislature passed last winter, and the [illegible] passed at the recent Session re-affirming and enlarging the same.

AN ACT TO EXEMPT CERTAIN OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE STATE FROM CONSCRIPTION.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in obedience to an act of the Congress of the Confederate States, passed and approved May [illegible] 1863, in relation to exempting certain persons necessary as the State officers in addition to the [illegible] officers exempted by the act of Congress passed October 11th 1862: the Governor of the State hereby claimed and obtained the exemption of the following officers necessary to carry on the operations of the State government, viz: All Justices of the Peace whose appointments were made previous to the [illegible], 1862, County Trustees, County Solicitors, [illegible] Clerks, one Deputy Sheriff in each county where there is no tax collector, Governor, Comptroller of the colored, into bond previous to the 11th of May, 1864, or their successors in office, one County Court for each Court requiring it, one County Commissioner for each county for distributing [illegible] provisions amongst soldier's families, Agents appointed under an act of Assembly for any duty, [illegible] Officers of the Militia of the State, [illegible] Officers of the Home Guards, Mayor [illegible] Mills of Raleigh, Wilmington, Salisbury, Charlotte, Fayetteville and Goldsboro', Commissioner of State, Board of Internal Improvement, and Treasury Board, and Employees of the State Government in the different departments.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the General Assembly doth [illegible] exempt all the different classes of officers enumerated in section first of this bill, in obedience to the act of Congress approved May 1st, 1863.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification.

Read three times and ratified in General Assembly, this 16th day of December A. D., 1863.

R. C. DONNELL, S. H. C.
GILES MEBANE, S. S.

The above is the exemption act, and below we give the recent action of the Assembly on the same:

RESOLUTIONS REMITTING STATE AND OTHER OFFICERS FROM CONSCRIPTION.

WHEREAS, The [illegible] and free discharge of the officers of the State is essential to the preservation of its sovereignty; and, whereas, Congress has no power to conscript State officers; and as this General Assembly has already, by an act, declared certain officers and employees of the State exempt;

Resolved, That this State demands exemption from conscription of all the Civil and Military officers thereof, and also all [illegible] Surveyors and Jailors, and all and every class of officers named in "an act to exempt certain officers and employees of the State from conscription," passed by this General Assembly at its adjourned session in 1863, and ratified the 16th day of December, 1863.

Read three times and ratified in General Assembly this 26th day of May, A. D., 1864.

R. C. DONNELL, S. H. C.
GILES MEBANE, S. S.

The opinion of the Attorney General is then given relative to exemptions in a note to Gov. Vance.

RALEIGH, May 27th, 1864.

His Excellency, Gov. VANCE—

SIR: Yours of this date has been received. Upon an examination of the two acts, I am of opinion that all Commissioners legally appointed, whether "spasmodic" or not, are included to be exempted by these acts.

Further: I am of opinion that the resolution of this session is not to be limited by the act of 1863. On the contrary, the resolutions evidence the intention of "all civil and military officers," and, in addition, surveyors and jailors, and such others as are enumerated in the act of 1863, such as commissioners, deputy sheriffs, &c., &c.

I am, yours respectfully,
THOS. RUFFIN,
Attorney General.
